

T M O
GENERAL DIRECTORATE
PRODUCT TECHNOLOGY AND LABORATORY
BRANCH DIRECTORATE

Our quality policy

- Service in accordance with the standard TS EN ISO/IEC 17025
- Conduct of services within the principles of impartiality, independence, equality, honesty and confidentiality
- Use of methods and devices with international and national validity
- Providing laboratory test results reports in the shortest possible time, accurately and reliably
- Execution of laboratory related work and transactions with educated personnel,
- Realization of all the services provided in accordance with the determined quality level and technical requirements,
- Providing continuity in quality,
- Increasing the quality level in line with developing technology,
- Ensuring customer satisfaction by regularly cooperating with customers,
- Continuous training and development studies, monitoring, evaluation and implementation of scientific and technological developments
- The protection of the environment and the proper use of resources,
- Informing all staff about the Quality Management System at the time they can actually participate in the application,
- Continuous improvement and improvement in current management system effectiveness,
- Achieving national leadership and quality leadership in quality,
- International co-operation and integration.

Our Goals

- Being a laboratory with international field validity,
- Particularly in the field of cereals by bringing the highest quality studies related to quality to similar institutions and organizations, to lead the private sector, to provide support,
- To increase the number of analyzes under accreditation,
- To broaden the scope of analysis in line with needs.